The History department would like to offer an exciting opportunity to current Year 10 GCSE Historians; a short but intense visit of three full days and two nights to Berlin. We use the services of a highly reputable tour company, and have done so now for over 10 years for this successful trip. They have a vast amount of experience in operating school tours to this vibrant city, rich in history and culture. Among the places that we would hope to visit are Sachsenhausen Concentration Camp, Hitler's bunker, the iconic Brandenburg Gate, the Berlin Olympic Stadium, the Berlin Wall, Karlshorst Museum, and the Stasi Museum or prison (Headquarters of the former East German secret police).

A valid passport and EHI card will be required – the passport will need a minimum of 6 months on it at the time of departure.

Please include full name/date of birth of student at time of booking. NAME MUST BE AS SHOWN ON THE PASSPORT
